

2013 Summer Reading Programs

Monday, June 10–Saturday, August 10

Summer reading fun continues at the Library! Register at www.cslibrary.org and come to the Library to pick up your registration fun-pack.

“Dig into Reading” is the theme for preschoolers, ages 4 and under, and elementary students. Both groups will experience a new kind of dig each week. They will delve into programs including dinosaurs, gardening, and underground animals.

Middle school students in grades 6-8 will go “Beneath the Surface.” They will enjoy exploring below the earth’s crust, where many treasures lie, including wildlife, gems, and hobbit homes.

Creepy Crawly Zoo

Monday, July 22, 1:30–2:30 p.m.

For ages 5 and up. Registration begins July 1.

The Creepy Crawly Zoo is coming to the Library! Known as The Bug Whisperer, Tony Gustin will show attendees the many invertebrate creatures that share our space. Live specimens will be available to handle after the program.

Let’s Draw Underground Animals

Friday, August 2, 10:00–11:30 a.m.

Ages 7 and up. Registration begins Friday July 12.

Where do wild animals sleep at night? Many of them burrow snug and cozy under the ground. Christine Thornton will be on hand to teach budding artists about the different types of creatures who make their homes underground and how to draw them in their nighttime habitats. Supplies will be provided. Space is limited to 30 participants.

Bug Day
