

Group Study Room Rules

Group study rooms are available by reservation only. Reservations can be made at the Technology Center service desk.

Patrons must have and present a valid CSPL library card.

Patrons must be at least 12 years of age.

Rooms are reserved in 1 hour time increments, up to 3 hours/day. If there are no other reservations for a room, time may be extended an additional hour (up to 3 hours).

Advanced reservations may be made 48 hours ahead of time. Advance reservations can only be made for 1 hour. If there are no other reservations for a room, time may be extended an additional hour (up to 3 hours).

Maximum number of people in each room cannot exceed the capacity as determined by the library. Group Study Room A has a maximum capacity of 6 people. Group Study Rooms B and C have a maximum capacity of 3 people.

Study rooms may not be used to conduct business transactions.

All rules and regulations as outlined in the Standards of Public Behavior Policy of the Carol Stream Public Library apply in the study rooms.

Library staff reserves the right to deny study room use to any individual or group violating the posted rules for use and/or any Carol Stream Public Library policies.
